Sir/Madam,

In reference to MUR# 7047, I will make the state following:

I nor, to the best of my knowledge, the rest of my staff has been involved in any political campaign to the extent we find ourselves at this point in time.

Since we have no experience in political campaigning to this level, we were unaware we needed any disclaimer on hand out material. Due to this in experience we've failed to put a disclaimer on material that we handed out at three caucus locations. We have corrected this problem to eliminated this issue in the future.

Respectfully,
